Dear Dr. Cahn:

I am glad to return herewith the corrected page proofs. The typesetter was apparently not familiar with the word Rebus. I have also clarified a sentence and straightened out the other minor errors.

Thank you for giving me this opportunity.

Sincerely yours,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Mr. Newman,

Thank you for your letter of November 12. It seems that the proofs I had sent you previously have gone astray. I send you an other set under separate cover and kindly ask you to return them quickly as we are approaching the page proofs.

Sincerely Yours,

Dr. Herbert A. Cahn

Dear Dr. Cahn:

My son wrote you on October 20, 1975, when I was in Bhutan.

I have never received the first proofs of my talk at the International Numismatic Congress. If there is still time I will be glad to check them as soon as I receive them.

I am sorry I did not receive them or you would have heard from me promptly.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Dr. Cahn:

Your letter of October 6 to my father, Eric P. Newman, has been referred to me because he is on vacation out of the country. I believe that he returned the proofs of your article to you before he left. However, whatever the case, I will bring your letter to his attention when he returns November 10.

Sincerely,

Andrew E. Newman

Dear Mr. Newman,

May I kindly ask you whether you have returned us the first proofs of your article for the Proceedings of the Congress? I have never received them and must now proceed to give green light for the page proofs.

Many thanks in advance for your early reply and kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Herbert A. Cahn
